TO APPROPRIATE FUNDING FOR THE 2017 EARTH DAY

BE IT ENACTED BY THE UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT SENATE:

SECTION I. PURPOSE

Since 2005, the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa (UHM) has celebrated Earth Day, an annual tradition which promotes existing sustainability efforts on-campus and in the community to foster networking, involvement, inspiration, and a sense of momentum in sustainability and environmental protection. This year, it will be commemorated on April 19, 2017 from 10:00 am – 6:00 pm in the Campus Center Courtyard and Legacy Pathway.

The UHM has a specific goal for Earth Day, which is to educate students about simple behavioral changes that can be adopted to amplify sustainability efforts and mitigate climate change, focusing on a broader sustainability this year, aiming to be as inclusive as possible, bringing in engineers, business majors, social studies, environmental studies, etc. We want this year's Earth Day to have something for everyone. Sustainability Council is partnering with Ka Leo and Art and Flea. About half of the vendors will be informational (campus clubs, nonprofits, etc.) and half will be artists selling sustainable products. There will be entertainment at the Campus Center Courtyard with artists like Timothy Gardener, Paula Fuga, Kealoha, and Paul Izak.
