SENATE RESOLUTION 07-18

IN SUPPORT OF UH MĀNOA EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS

BE IT ENACTED BY THE UNDERGRADUATE SENATE:

- WHEREAS*, the Associated Students of the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa Senate (ASUH Mānoa) is the elected body representing approximately 11,000 full-time classified undergraduate students; and,
- WHEREAS*, on the morning of January 13, 2018, the Hawaii Emergency Agency sent a false text alert to Hawaii residents of an incoming ballistic missile; and,
- WHEREAS*, students, faculty, and staff were in a state of confusion due to insufficient knowledge of emergency procedures during the day of the false missile alert; and,
- WHEREAS*, students on campus had sought evacuation shelters that were unknowingly decommissioned believing that these locations were accessible due to signage that was not removed yet outdated, causing students fear and confusion; and,
- WHEREAS*, the campus had no readily available safety maps or diagrams for students to locate and shelter-in-place or evacuate in times of emergency; and,
- WHEREAS*, the Resident Assistants of the UHM Student Housing did not have training or preparation to respond to said crisis resulting in more confusion for students that lived on campus; and,
- WHEREAS*, the communication between students and the campus was scattered and failed to notify all students and their emergency contact during the crisis; and,
- WHEREAS*, it has been made abundantly clear that revisions in emergency procedures would ensure the safety and well-being of the students; now therefore,
