- 2. Vice-President: Maurice creating a workshop. Still working out the details with Bonnie, Theme: Basic and thorough understanding of life in Hawaii, certain cultural practices that would be different to foreigners, should attempt to present acknowledgement on Hawaiian culture. Giving perspective on local and Hawaiian culture.

Kawai strongly suggest that we include kanaka women in the political science department; their perspectives will provide insight on our leadership; worth a shot to include them. VP Crabbe agrees. They have valid statements. Open to collaboration. Facilitate another follow up workshop. Sounds like a beginning.

Bonnie: In terms of all these ideas that came out and potential collaborations; there could be multiple workshops on cultural competency.

Kawai: to take stress off of maurice, the committees could take on a shared responsibility so that everyone can get some input into the workshops.

Commented [3]: Possibly refreshments in courtyard at 4:30 PM, town hall begins at 5 PM.

Commented [4]: Group of students, leading the charge is Nikhil Stewart, who want to promote suffrage on campus.

He has requested ASUH support and wants to hold a town hall type event. Please let me know if you want to help and I'll share his contact. This issue would be most related to Campus Life.

Commented [5]: Group of students associated with the environmental justice club, point of contact is Lexi Roper. They are seeking individual signatures and would like the formal support of ASUH. Please let me know if you would be interested in making this happen via a resolution and I will share her contact information.

Commented [6]: Asked to share this link to a page where survey is collecting information for use in long-term plans involving transportation, housing, employment, environmental, land-use.

Maurice: Open to planning, send follow up email, text if you have his #, wants to make sure that this represents ASUH.

Bonnie: It is not the duty of the committees to run workshops, if they did it should be content based tied to there committee purpose.
