(P) Advisor: Manini

Guests (Submitting Testimonies):

On behalf of 11-26:

- Pearl (Momi) Bachiller (P)
- Rape is very common
- This is similar to alcohol awareness policies that students are already privy to.
- This would feel protective for speaker as a survivor of sexual assault and harassment.
- Highlighting the importance of robust protections against false accusations
- Kawaiolaakealii Kapuni (P)
- In support of transformative justice pathways for survivors of sexual assault
- The interconnected nature of the bodies of people and Hawai'i needing protection and sovereignty.
- As a survivor of sexual assault, this bill is significant
- Logistical planning/money should not be considered as an issue blocking the passage of this bill.
- The title nine office on campus is also lacking in its support of student
- Punia Pale (P) Alumni

ASUH

Associated Students of the University of Hawai'i

- Reaffirming the statements of the previous speakers.
- Doesn't think title nine training is bad.
- Many students would likely do this for free.
- The training is short and accessible so it should not reduce graduation rates or student support.
- This should not be considered a radical perspective given the history of the University and ASUH students standing up against

- Moment of Silence for the passing of Melia Ronk
