- GSMM #10
  - SAL sugui motions; VP Ziadeh seconds; voice vote unanimous

D. Official Correspondence

- Graystone Quarterly Report | Reference PA 02
  - Dr. Zimmerman: domestic markets have been quite resilient, protect portfolio where's volatility, how consumers feel in our spending and confidence is important, we need diversification in our portfolio,
  - Pres Watson: In terms of foreign markets, are we getting more out of them than we are domestically
  - Dr. Zimmerman: that is correct, anytime that the dollar weakens, foreign securities are more attractive
  - Dr. Zimmerman: started off the fiscal year in a good way; equal weight limits the concentration risk by Allocating proportionally, international markets are outperforming domestic markets, 503,000 is your cash reserve; you're allotted spending amount for this new fiscal year is $461,420

- Dr. Zimmerman: I won;t be able to compare how you did to your peers until Feb 2026; it's okay to be a little overweight to equities, cannot be below 40% and cannot be above 80%, sitting at 72.6%; policy states to keep 50,000 minimum in cash
- Pres Watson: Glad to hear markets have been doing well despite federal situations, is it consistent with last term's growth?
- Dr. Zimmerman: have to double check, you were up in this quarter and in October
  - ASUH has reviewed Revenue, Profit, and Deviation section
  - ASUH has reviewed the policy compliance section
  - ASUH has reviewed the Investment Policy Section
