To Appropriate Funding for an ASUH & GSO Spring 2018 Town Hall Event

BE IT ENACTED BY THE UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT SENATE:

SECTION I PURPOSE

The ASUH and GSO will be hosting its second Town Hall Event this year to provide an avenue for students to 1) learn about University Resources that correlate to areas of student interest and concern, 2) to meet and have conversations with relevant university and community entities and administration, and 3) be able to direct general student concerns and ideas to both student government organizations to strengthen the student voice and guide ASUH and GSO to advocate collaboratively. The student attendance and participation at this event will also help ASUH and GSO improve its engagement with its constituents, and better gauge the student perspective to guide ASUH and GSO's advocacy efforts. The Town Hall "theme" this Town Hall is "Campus Safety" and will take place in the first week of April.

This year, the ASUH & GSO is working on unifying and strengthening the student voice. Efforts such as hosting this event are directly related to that.
